Biography

Almudena Fernandez Vicens is a contemporary Spanish painter and printmaker whose work is characterized by heavy textured surfaces and varied materials creating abstract, monochromatic compositions. Her process centers on gradually trimming away elements in search of essence — leaning toward minimal expression through a distinctive monochromatic palette and open spaces.

Her work appears in juried exhibitions and private collections, earning several recent awards. In 2025 she presented Inner Dialogues, a Solo Show at Artworks on the Green Gallery, Norwalk, CT, and has participated in Art on Paper (NY), Context and Acqua (Miami). She is a member of Silvermine Guild of Artists, Rowayton Art Center, Stamford Art Association, Greenwich Art Society, Greenwich Arts Council, and the Loft Artist Association, where she serves as Board Member.

Born in Madrid in 1976, she moved to Connecticut in 2007, studying at Silvermine School, Greenwich Art Society, and School of Visual Arts (NY). She works from studios in Stamford and New Canaan.

Artist Statement

My work explores the relationship between material, time, and perception through a process of reduction—gradually simplifying each piece to its essential form. Guided by minimal expression, monochromatic palettes, and open space, I create abstract compositions that exist between the recognizable and the enigmatic.

Working with paper in both traditional and expanded ways, my monotypes and mixed media pieces investigate form and tone on the surface, while my sculptures transform paper pulp and cheesecloth into volume and structure. Through this shift, paper becomes both image and object—fragile yet resilient.

Influenced by architecture, nature, and decay, the work reflects on transformation and the quiet passage of time. Each piece invites a moment of stillness—an opportunity to pause, observe, and reconnect with what is essential.
